SCOUT ME IN

WHO CAN JOIN?

Any girl or boy in kindergarten through fifth grade. You can join for the first time or rejoin in any of these grades! You do not need any prior experience with scouting! Many of our parents and children are first time scouts!

SOME UPCOMING FALL EVENTS:

Mon. Aug. 25, 6:30 p.m. in the St. George School Gym, Free to All, Please Email to RSVP, Our Open House Event - Featuring Animal Friends: Kliebert's Alligator Farm is set to bring some animal friends to visit St. George. Come learn more about scouting at St. George and have fun with the entire family.

September 9*: Visit from Julia Naylor of the Louisiana State Crime Lab to speak about forensic science, including demonstrations such as finger printing, footprint casts, and more.

September 12: DEADLINE FOR NEW MEMBER SIGN-UPS.

September 21, 2pm: Tentative date for our annual raingutter regatta, where the kids build and race model boats in water channel race tracks at St. George.

October 4-5: Campout in Clinton, LA, at Avondale Scout Reservation, with a possible visit by the Baton Rouge Astronomical Association to assist in telescope viewing. Conditions permitting, we'll hope to have a traditional camp fire, smores, and more.

October 14*: Visit from a representative of the Seven Seas Dive Shop to talk about Scuba Diving.

November 11*: Dr. Greg Lutz from LSU will speak about Aquaculture, and likely will bring some animal friends such as small alligators and crawfish.

December 9*: A visit from local illusionist Craig Boudreaux.

Starred events in Saint George School Cafeteria at 6:30 p.m.*

SOME PAST ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

Indoor rock climbing; model rocket launches; fire truck tours; canoeing; science experiments; drone and robot demonstrations; fishing; multiple animal encounters; races with miniature cars built by our scouts, and more. . . .
